

INTERCOLLEGIATE BROADCASTING SYSTEM

Campus Stations Throughout the United States:

Once again, IBS is pleased to invite you to attend the annual IBS NATIONAL CONVENTION.

Last year, WRCT at Carnegie Tech was host to the Convention in Pittsburgh. Approximately 160 representatives from points as distant as South Carolina, Oklahoma, and the state of Washington met to hear leading college and professional broadcasters, and to exchange information on College Radio.

On Saturday, April 7th, station WYBC at Yale University in New Haven, Conn. will be host to the 1962 IBS NATIONAL CONVENTION. In addition to numerous seminars on various facets of College Radio, a Luncheon Banquet will be held at the famous Mory's, there will be exhibits by broadcast equipment manufacturers, and an opportunity to tour the stations operated by our hosts. Of course, there will be the general session following the luncheon, with a well-known keynote speaker.

Of special interest to the station representatives are the numerous opportunities to consult with members of the IBS staff, broadcasters, and equipment manufacturers. IBS staff members skilled in engineering problems, FM, programming, sales, promotion, and many other areas of College Radio will be available to discuss your problems.

Overnight accommodations are available at the Hotel Taft for those who wish to come to New Haven on Friday, April 6th and/or stay over Saturday night, April 7th. Naturally, it will be necessary to receive your reservation and advance payment to insure accommodations. Room assignments and all registration will be at Hendrie Hall, 165 Elm Street - the home of WYBC.

The Luncheon Banquet will also require advance reservations. As the capacity of Mory's is limited to approximately 200, reservations will be on a first-come, first-served basis.

Let us have your advance registration and reservations as soon as possible (before the deadline listed, of course), and meet with us on April 7th.
